
NEWS

Meeting with the Police Commissioner to discuss about Tourism Security Protocol

The minister had a meeting last Thursday with the Commissioner of Police and other senior members of the Maldives Police Service to discuss about the Tourism Security Protocol of the Industry, specially focusing on the respective resorts and their safety. In the meeting, the commissioner and his delegation briefed the minister on the recent incidents which had occurred and the reasons that made some of the incidents to go out of hand.

In addition, the police requested the minister to provide a formal link of understanding about the Protocol to all the resorts and to help the Police successfully carryout their campaign of awareness programs in all the resorts. Furthermore, the Commissioner of Police also requested to make an incident coordination team to act in case of an emergency.

To conclude, the minister highlighted on the hard work that the Maldives Police Service is doing to ensure the safety of the Maldives and appreciated their effort with the heartiest gratitude.