Date: 24 September 2019
To: Tourist Resorts
Subject: The Sudden Insolvency of Thomas Cook Group

Dear Sir/Madam,

With recent developments in the travel industry around the world due to the sudden insolvency of Thomas Cook group, the Ministry of Tourism would like to assure all tourist resorts in the Maldives that we are working closely with all concerned authorities and international partners to address all issues related to the situation.

The Government of Maldives assures full support to the tourism industry and the travelers affected and we kindly request all operators to provide maximum relief to these travelers and seek any assistance needed from the Ministry or relevant government authority. Please also note that the Ministry has placed a Help Desk at Velana International Airport to assist the affected travelers, and set up a Hotline (9423131, 7223131) to report any emergencies related to this situation.

We thank all parties for the cooperation given at this time of difficulty and request that any feedback regarding the situation be sent to bureau@tourism.gov.mv

Thanking you for your support and co-operation at all times.

Thank you,

Yours sincerely,

Ali Waheed
Minister
